OBITUARY

Of

DEACON HENRY LEE BERRY

On the first day of February, 1899, in Ft. Paine, Ala., a bundle of joy was presented to a proud father, Richard Berry and a happy mother, Nancy Tiege. They named their bright-eyed, smiling baby boy Henry Lee. He was the youngest of their four children. He had two other brothers and one sister. While very young they moved to the State of Tennessee.

In 1924, in Knoxville, Tenn., Bro. Berry married Mrs. Cora Agnes Berry, his wife of fifty-two years. To this union was added one daughter, Anita Jean, now deceased.

In 1929, Bro. Berry was saved in Pittsburgh, PA through the ministry of Bishop Percy Lockett. He served there as a faithful member and deacon.

Because of the encouragement and persuasion of the late Bishop S. M. Crouch, in 1951, Deacon Berry came to Los Angeles making it their home. Mother Berry preceded him in death, June 18, 1976. On May 14, 1978, he married Mrs. Willie Bell Smith. His last days were spent happily with her.

Here at Emmanuel, Deacon Berry was a Trustee and Church Treasurer for several years. He was appointed Deacon Board Chairperson by Pastor LeRoy Mardis, a position he held until his demise.

After a brief illness, 'Dad Berry' as he was affectionally called by his family and close friends, was released from this house of clay, Wednesday, May 2, 1984, to be forever with his Lord.

Cherishing many beautiful and treasured memories are: a devoted wife, Mrs. Willie Bell Berry; three nieces, one nephew, two step-daughters; seven grandchildren, five great-grand, two adopted daughters, other adopted children, and many, many friends.

*"I've gone to a place that's prepared for me,
Where joy and peace are a reality.
You earn this home by the life that you live.
Give Jesus your life—eternal life to you he'll give.
I've gone to a place prepared for me.
I won't come back, but you can come to me."*
